

Love On The Run; A Brothers Betrayal

Money, Power, Respect, was the mantra of Polos life. There was no room for love and other things. Polos focus was making sure him and the niggas around him, which included his younger brother Prada, was straight. Who would have known all that could change at the face of a woman. Samaria, is a plain jane who main focus is on not becoming a product of her environment. Upon meeting polo she is thrust into the same environment she is trying so hard to escape. Will their worlds collide and blow up leaving behind rubble? Or will the new found lovers come out on top? I am my brothers keeper... Or am I? How long can one live and be satisfied with being a shadow. Thats the problem Prada faces constantly. Can he continue to respect and follow behind the only one who has ever held him down or will he allow another to come between what he and Polo have. They say blood is thicker than water... Will that ring true for these brothers? Or will ones greed and thirst for power be the ultimate downfall for them both?
