

The Faraday Cage

Set in a past that never was five tales of adventure and excitement from the pen of five completely different authors sharing a single world. On a mining base in the Asteroid Belt people start dying by having their blood sucked out but vampires are a myth, aren't they? A health-spa pleasure cruise to the Moon and back goes very wrong and only a young ensign can help. A London patents clerk is employed to build a low-gravity playroom for the Tsars child, but Russian politics are dangerous. The author of an Agony Aunt column falls for the heir to a massive fortune, but how can they overcome the intense family feud that stands between them? A brilliant Swiss-born girl, dragged by her family to Perth, Australia, sets off in search of a downed flyer to rescue its Babbage analytical. An eclectic anthology of fascinating stories.
