

Bad Things

Marshall recalls Stephen Kings ability to set a story in the world of the commonplace, then suddenly jolt it into a more hellish realm. New York Times Bad things have always happened in Black Ridge, Washington and Michael Marshall, the acclaimed, bestselling, Phillip K. Dick Award-winning author of The Intruders (Scary brilliance Baltimore Sun) and Straw Men (Brilliantly written and scary as hell Stephen King), lets readers experience all the exceptional nastiness. Marshalls Bad Things is an electrifying combination of psychological suspense, mystery, horror, and paranormal activity that no fan of ingenious, intelligent thrillers will want to miss.
