

Carved in Stone (Life After War Book 8)

Its their first attempt Safe Haven is going to try making a permanent settlement in the mountains of Georgia and every soul there is ready for the break. Theyve traveled for more than nine months, with few stops. Now, they can finally quit living from trucks and try to rebuild what theyve lost. Except Bad things are coming. Safe Haven thinks theyve endured the worst the apocalypse has to offer, but theyve actually been lucky. Thats about to change and all the descendants on the planet cant stop it. Magic is nearly powerless against the effects of a nuclear war and the entire camp must make a choice: Do we stand or do we run?
