

Lightspeed Magazine, November 2012

Lightspeed is an online science fiction and fantasy magazine. In its pages, you will find science fiction: from near-future, sociological soft SF, to far-future, star-spanning hard SF and fantasy: from epic fantasy, sword-and-sorcery, and contemporary urban tales, to magical realism, science-fantasy, and folktales. In our November 2012 issue, we have original science fiction by Sandra McDonald (Searching for Slave Leia) and Tom Crosshill (A Well-Adjusted Man), and SF reprints by Eleanor Arnason (Ace 167) and Tobias S. Buckell (A Game of Rats and Dragon). Plus, we have original fantasy by Jeremiah Tolbert (La Alma Perdida de Marguerite Espinoza) and Richard Bowes (Seven Smiles and Seven Frowns), along with fantasy reprints by Aliette de Bodard (As the Wheel Turns) and Carrie Vaughn (A Princess of Spain). For our ebook readers, our ebook-exclusive novella is West by Orson Scott Card, and of course we have our usual assortment of author and artist spotlights, along with feature interviews with bestselling authors Alastair Reynolds and Terry Brooks.
