

Emdash & Ellipses: A Chapbook

Emdash and Ellipses is the third poetry chapbook to be shared by poet, writer, and activist Tanzila Taz Ahmed. The collection of poems written over the course of the past seven years examines thematic struggles of South Asian American identities, Muslim spirituality, grief, social justice purpose, and the journey for love. Spilt in two parts - Poems to Scream and Poems to Whisper - the pieces explore the spaces in-between, loudly and quietly.
