Aurora Award Finalist story from a multi-award winning author. Doug Smith is, quite simply, the finest short-story writer Canada has ever produced in the science fiction and fantasy genres, and he's also the most prolific. His stories are a treasure trove of riches that will touch your heart while making you think. Robert J. Sawyer, Hugo Award-winning author of Hominids and FlashForward A great storyteller with a gifted and individual voice. Charles de Lint One of Canada's most original writers of speculative fiction. Library Journal DESCRIPTION: Think of human emotion as a geography, with peaks of pleasure and valleys of pain. Imagine a drug that flips the valleys and makes them peaks, too. You react now to an event based not on the pleasure or pain it brings, but solely on the intensity of the emotion created. Pain brings pleasure, grief gives joy, horror renders ecstasy. Now give this drug to a soldier. Tell them to kill. Not in the historically acceptable murder of war, but in a systematic corporate strategy--of xenocide. They will kill. And they will revel in it. Welcome to the world of Scream. Jarrod is a Scream-addicted soldier forced to take part in the destruction of entire races. But when his unit encounters the Benan, aliens who hold the secret to true enlightenment, no one is prepared for the result. REVIEWS: reaches far past the muddled mediocrity of swashbuckling tales forgotten before the page is turned to the next story. I enjoyed the alien anthropology and the details are tremendous. Tangent Online Douglas Smith provides a riff on Ray Bradbury's famous rationale of space travel: for Man to find God in the cosmos. A science fictional depiction of the mistreatment of aliens to subvertly criticize the atrocities of imperialist colonization. SF Site Another strong story, looking at humanity's treatment of indigenous people. Best SF ...oppressed inhabitants of distant worlds making the ultimate sacrifice in order to bring mankind back to the realisation of what right and wrong truly mean. Whispers of Wickedness reviews ...was my favourite of the issue. went exactly where I expected it to, but that was where I wanted it to go--I was there for the ride I was just engrossed in the whole thing...and applaud it thoroughly! just blew me away! I was taken away by the lovely prose. ...provoked some really interesting ideas mind-blowing InterZone readers forum
