

Witch: The Moondark Saga, Books 7-9

Witch is a big, first-rate fantasy adventure, crammed full of action, wonder, intrigue, vivid characters, and rich details. -Dean Koontz, New York Times best selling author Continue the journey with Witch, the third and final book in The Moondark Saga Rose Priestess Sylah and her companions are making their way back to The Three Territories, armed with powerful knowledge contained in sacred books. All the while, Gan Moondark has been struggling to keep his young empire alive. The kingdom suffers under constant attacks from enemies on all sides, and Gans campaign for freedom may already be dead. As winter falls, The Three Territories enemies have begun to conspire, planning a coordinated attack on Gans castle. Church means to reassert its power in the region and punish Sylah for heresy. Moondance wants nothing less than the total domination of Gans kingdom. The Skan intend to raid the entire coast for slaves, looting the lands for all they are worth. Gan must once again turn to Conway and the other survivors to use their skills and weapons in the coming battle. They will need every advantage against the combined force of their enemies. But the people of Gans kingdom are restless, fearful of their enemies and distrustful of the magic being produced by Sylahs books. Gan must convince his people to trust him, and the strangers, or his kingdom will be lost before the war has even begun.
