

Flightless Bird: Training for Atlantis (The Atlantis Novella Serial Book 1)

21,629 Words Hunted, wanted, beast of night. Lurks and takes of the humans light. Seizing, leaving nothing but death. Taking until theres nothing left. But yet alas! the humans shall fight. A humans strength will steal his life. This war is not a dream deferred, but the unyielding Strength of a flightless bird. Since birth, Kyra Fawkes has been destined to become a worker. At eighteen, she will leave her home for the compound in the city, where she will live and train for her initial descent into Atlantis. In training, Kyra will learn how to survive in the water-logged world beneath hers. She will gain the skills needed to face and defeat the monster that wreaks havoc on the village of Atlantis. For her whole life, Kyra has dreaded this moment; her father was also a worker and he met his untimely death during one of his descents. But upon her departure, Kyra learns that her fathers death was no accident, that there is more than meets the eye when it comes to the workers and Atlantis. And when Kyra reaches the compound, she finds out even more. A workers role in society was created to save and protect the people in Atlantis. But how can she trust that when there are so many secrets?
