

The Begining (The Navigator Book 1)

An old special operations soldier, in hiding from the government, is recruited for a super-secret project to get mankind to expand off the planet Earth. He isn't given a choice but to leave his wife and friends behind and go along. The multi-national agency needed him and his special ability as a Navigator, but could not allow him to keep ties to anyone that could be used against him. He soon discovers that not everything is as it should be in this man-made Garden of Eden and the Council needs his old skills as an assassin too. But can he trust them, or are they just as corrupt as his old bosses were? Whose really running the show anyway?
