

Final Days (Comet Clement series, #6)

With only days remaining until Comet Clement reaches Earth, final preparations are made for the three arks. Even as the world waits to see if the last-ditch Domino Deflection attempt will work, pandemonium still erupts... Peter Mansfield is tasked with gathering the last group of people to leave the planet, the specials who have ties to the space station that they don't yet know about. Mansfield has faced many difficult decisions over the years but will he survive long enough to make it to the station? All three arks face serious danger and not every member of the Inner Circle will survive through the final days as Comet Clement approaches Earth for the moment of impact....
