

FRIDAYS IN KAMAKURA: The Case of Zen and Zucchini and Other Stories (The Casebook of Irving and Innocence 2)

Innocence Blake arrives in Japan in need of a mentor. Fate provides Irving Burns. A veteran of forty years on the archipelago, he's got a casebook full of entertaining and revealing stories to share. In year two of their adventures, the pair stroll through the beautiful gardens of Kamakura's famed Zen temples and discover everything from the grave of film director Yasujiro Ozu to the Zen of zucchini. The Casebook of Irving and Innocence: The Complete Trilogy is now available in paperback or as an e-book boxed set for the bargain price of just $4.99. This humorous, heartwarming series traces their friendship over the course of three years. Thursdays in Yokohama (Year One) takes them from The Bluff in Yokohama to the top of Mt. Fuji. They plow through a snowy winter on Japan's northernmost island of Hokkaido in Saturdays in Sapporo (Year Three). Through it all, an amazing friendship is forged.
