

EARTH Flight of The Clanship (The Ankh Trilogy Book 2)

Book Two of the Ankh Trilogy finds Jonathon McKinnah in Gruenwald ten years after he and his wife, Marcia discovered the lost landing site of the original pioneers from Earth. They have reopened the school and the science center and have been busy educating young Islandians in the lost sciences. Jonathon and Talo, the alien AI who has become his close companion have been exploring ways to duplicate the Ankhs faster than light space drive. In a daring move they discover the secret and set out to visit Earth. Danger and intrigue wait our heroes when they discover Earth is in the hands of ruthless men, bent on stealing the secret of the FTL drive. Narrowly escaping, they seek out the other colony worlds to form a Space Confederation to counter the immense power of Mother Earth. Standing in their way are the Muhybas, an alien hive society bent on destroying all humans, colonists and Terrans alike.
