

Leaving the Shuttle Behind (Extinction Book 8)

Lorien, a chameleon-like bipedal alien, is trying to make a living as a shuttle bus driver to support her son, Arbor, who aspires to be an architect. Lorien struggles with blotting out her past as a military pilot while Arbor stresses over how hell ever get to design a building. When theyve reached a dead end in their lives, they join a team of mercenaries and go on an adventure to see more of the universe in the hopes of earning a big score. Leaving the Shuttle Behind is the eighth core book in my Extinction series and follows Mana Vein. This novel features the poetry of Lorraine Pistilli Jones.
