Contents Civilians S. L. Bickley Hard Rock Mickey J. Corrigan Booker M. B. Dezotell The Red Balloon Eugene Brennan #LotusEaters Richard Wren Contributors S. L. Bickley is a student of English literature and a widely published poet. Her short fiction has appeared in Every Day Fiction, Cover of Darkness, and Tales of the Talisman, and has been podcast by Pseudopod and Cast of Wonders. She divides her time between Dayton, Ohio and Missoula, Montana. Mickey J. Corrigan, originally from Boston, lives and writes and gets into trouble in South Florida. The tropics provide a lush setting for steamy pulp fiction. Mickey's stories have appeared in several anthologies and online publications. Novellas include the cyber mystery Dream Job (Breathless Press, 2012), which has been compared to The Matrix and the Twilight Zone. The novel Sugar Babies is a dirty thriller (Champagne Books, 2013). Visit at www.mickeyjcorrigan.com. M. B. Dezotell is a middle-aged writer of genre short stories, with a preference for hard science fiction. However, dabbling with other genres and messing with readers expectations is also a favored pastime. Eugene Brennan is from Kilkenny, Ireland. He has been published in From the Depths, Flash Fiction Magazine, and 365tomorrows. Richard Wren has been writing Science Fiction for the last twenty years in between teaching Science and running an Environmental Field Centre and Nature Reserve. While working on the Reserve, he has attempted to combine Biochemistry and Herbalism. He is fascinated by all sciences from Astronomy to Zoology and has had short stories published in Perihelion Science Fiction and Syzygy magazines.
