Five go by Land - Five go by Sea The Survivors fight for Home A group of teens on a class trip to Disneyland are left stranded. An EMP over North America has destroyed everything electronic. No cars, no planes, no phones, no electricity. Refusing to wait for someone else to help them, ten courageous young people take charge of their future and choose to begin the long journey home. 1500 miles of adventure and lawless country await. Will their determination be enough? Home - Book 3 in the bestselling Stranded Series, sees the teens not only fighting for their own lives, but for the lives of their families as well. Alex and Emilys two groups are finally united after making their way home to Canada from Disneyland, but a peaceful, happy homecoming is not to be. The survivors are shocked to learn that their town is under siege and their families are both prisoners and slaves. After sneaking through town and the farms they grew up on, they witness the pain and suffering to which their families, friends and neighbours are being subjected. The group of teens have to decide just how far they are willing to go to save them. Vastly outnumbered, they need every advantage they can get if they have any chance to free their people. Life sucks when you are Home, but still Stranded.
