

The Big Feastival Cookbook

The Big Feastival Cookbook ties in to Jamie Oliver's first festival of food, music and fun, being held in London on 1, 2 and 3 July 2011. Not just tons of fun to be had, but a festival with a heart too as it's all for charity! Profits are going to The Jamie Oliver Foundation and The Princes Trust. Alongside the festival, the book celebrates the very best in summer ingredients and flavours, with contributions from some of the best food writers and chefs in the business, from Sophie Grigson, Rachel Allen, Thomasina Miers and Jo Pratt to Giorgio Locatelli, Theo Randall, Atul Kochhar and Peter Gordon. The Womens Institute has contributed some recipes, as have restaurants from Fifteen to Vinoteca, Trinity, Cafe Spice Namaste, Canteen, Barbecoa and Gourmet Burger Kitchen. The delicious selection of recipes includes: English pea and mint soup, Roasted squash and feta salad, Seared scallops and chorizo, Smoked mackerel and roast potato salad, Braised pork, leek, mushroom and cider pie, Sweet potato hash browns with sausages, Minted lamb burgers with feta and tomato jam, Dark chocolate cremoso with English raspberries and Peanut butter and white chocolate brownies.
