

Call from the Wild

Award-winning author Doranna Durgin has over 30 published novels (MMPB, trade, and hardcover) and another 19 short pieces. Now available from the author, Call from the Wild is a re-released story originally published in the DAW anthology, ReVisions an anthology of alternate history stories that consider what would have happened if scientific and technological breakthroughs--and challenges--occurred long before they did in real history. In Neils world, there are miniature seeing-eye horses, service pigs, stock-guarding llamas, and bred-up Siamese guard cats because in Neils world, dogs were never domesticated, and never will be. But it seems no ones asked the dogs what they think... Included in The Heart of Dog.
