

One to One: Understanding Personal Relationships

The Politics of Money Money is the most powerful symbol in modern society. Do you understand what it really means to you and your partner? Competitive Striving What works at the office may be undermining your home life. Competition brings out the worst in human nature, and it can be unlearned. Anger and Jealousy Misunderstood emotions are most often caused by hidden or unrecognized feelings. Learn how and why they happen and what you can do about them. The Myth of Togetherness Understand the need for privacy and independence without guilt. Constructive time apart can be positive, healthy, and necessary. From the bestselling author of David and Lisa comes a clear, compassionate, and concise guide to relationships. Drawing on his more than thirty years experience as a practicing psychiatrist, Dr. Rubin examines the nature of human interaction and presents readily understandable information on how relationships work--or fail to.
