

The Visionary

It has been almost twenty years since Lisa Cleary had a psychic experience. Now her life is about to be shattered by waking nightmares - visions of her past that possess her at work, at home, on the street. And new images of terrified women...mutilations...and murder. In this debut thriller from Don Passman, the suspense is relentless as the hunt for a killer becomes an odyssey into the mind of...THE VISIONARY. Lisa Cleary is a beautiful young business-woman who wants nothing more than to rise to the top of the prestigious accounting firm where she works. Desperate to stop the uncontrollable hallucinations that threaten to take over her life, she seeks treatment from Dr. Michael Rennick, a psychiatrist-lawyer on the faculty of UCLA. Meanwhile, departmental rivals have saddled LAPD Detective Danny Talon with a case they're sure will end his career. A violent serial killer has committed three murders, and the mayor is publicly demanding an immediate arrest. Talon has no suspects, and the killer hasn't left a single clue. With more victims at stake, and his job in peril, Talon seeks Rennick's help to develop a forensic profile. But Professor Rennick, fighting private crises, refuses to work on Talon's case and won't take on new patients - until Lisa tells him of her psychic experiences. And her visions. Visions that describe the serial killer's crime scenes. The locations of weapons. And images of murders not yet committed. Now as Lisa's waking nightmares grow more frightening, more vivid, and more precise, Lisa, Talon, and Rennick must join forces to find the killer - and the secret behind the nightmares of THE VISIONARY.
