

William Hope Hodgson, Collection novels

William Hope Hodgson (1877–1918) was an English author. He produced short fiction, and novels, spanning several overlapping genres including horror, fantastic fiction and science fiction. Hodgson used his experiences at sea to lend authentic detail to his short horror stories, many of which are set on the ocean, including his series of linked tales forming the Sargasso Sea Mythos. His novels such as The Night Land and The House on the Borderland feature more cosmic themes, but several of his novels also focus on horrors associated with the sea. Early in his writing career he dedicated effort to poetry, although few of his poems were published during his lifetime. He also attracted some notice as a photographer and achieved renown as a bodybuilder. He died in World War I at the age of 40. In this book: The House on the Borderland The Night Land The Ghost Pirates The Boats of the Glen Carrig Carnacki, The Ghost Finder Men of the Deep Waters The Voice of the Ocean
