

Zombie City: Episode 5

San Francisco is in ruins. Hundreds of thousands of people have been killed, and hundreds of thousands more have been infected. Shane and his new allies have fought to stay alive since the start of the outbreak. Now they're fighting to bring it to an end. They know the man responsible, and they know where to find him. But bringing the guilty to justice entails traveling across the ravaged city, through many of its most densely populated areas. And in certain parts of the city, the infected aren't the greatest threats. This is the final episode of the Zombie City serial. Note: The entire Zombie City serial is now available in a reduced-price omnibus edition. You can get all five episodes at a bargain rate here: amazon.com/dp/B00ME3PSIU
